Single Payer 101: the Medicare for All presentation  8:45 AM, Wyeth Gallery B
This sample Grand Rounds serves as introduction on single payer for first-time attendees, but it is also a see-and-emulate session for public speaking, even as a refresher for experienced speakers. Dr. Susan Rogers is a board member of PNHP.

Speaking for single payer  10:15 AM, Wyeth Gallery C
In this plenary session, two of PNHP’s most experienced presenters will teach participants the fundamental skills of evaluating your audience, adjusting your presentation, and effective public speaking for single payer. Dr. Ed Weisbart is chair of PNHP’s Missouri chapter. Dr. Claudia Fegan is national coordinator of PNHP.

Single Payer 102: answering difficult questions  1:00 PM and 2:40 PM, Homer Room
Bring your toughest policy questions about single payer to this session with the experts on single payer. Dr. David Himmelstein and Dr. Steffie Woolhandler are Distinguished Professors at CUNY’s School of Urban Public Health at Hunter College, lecturers at Harvard Medical School, and co-founders of PNHP.

Media 101: working with traditional media  1:00 PM, Wyeth Gallery B
During this interactive workshop, members will learn basic skills and strategies for developing relationships with local media, including meetings with editorial boards, live interviews, and writing and pitching press releases, op-eds, and letters to the editor. Clare Fauke is a communications specialist with PNHP. Jessica Glenza is the health reporter for The Guardian US.

Media 102: social media and digital tools  2:40 PM, Wyeth Gallery B
Interested in social media and video production? This workshop will equip members with the skills to produce their own media and to use social media platforms to share important information about single payer. We will even produce a short video as part of the workshop. Bring your white coat! Dixon Galvez-Searle is a communications specialist with PNHP. Alex Cabrera is co-chair of SNaHP’s media team.

Chapter Organizing 101: building your PNHP chapter  1:00 PM, Hopper Room
Hear from our North Carolina chapter about how their chapter is organized and their successes; tips and resources from PNHP’s national organizer; and have an opportunity to discuss how to start or strengthen your chapter. Dr. Jessica Schorr Saxe is chair of PNHP’s Charlotte, NC, chapter, Health Care Justice. Dr. Denise Finck-Rothman chairs the membership committee for HCJ. Kaytlin Gilbert is a national organizer with PNHP.

Chapter Organizing 102: building your SNaHP chapter  2:40 PM, Hopper Room
Interested in starting a SNaHP chapter at your school? Want new ideas for chapter activities, or tips on working with other local SNaHP chapters? Rachel Madley and Stephanie Michael are co-chairs of SNaHP’s education and development committee. Kaytlin Gilbert is a national organizer with PNHP.

Activist Tools 101: storytelling and deep listening  1:00 PM and 2:40 PM, O’Keefe Room
This workshop will cover concrete skills related to deep listening, organizing conversations, the power of storytelling, and the work of narrative in building solidarity across movements. Ursula Rozum is upstate organizer for the PNHP NY Metro chapter and the Campaign for New York Health. Dr. Nicte Itzel Mejia is assistant professor of neurology at Harvard Medical School and Massachusetts General Hospital, and founding director of MGH’s Neurology Community Health Diversity & Inclusion initiative.

Activist Tools 102: building a relationship with your legislator  1:00 PM and 2:40 PM, Wyeth Gallery C
One-on-one visits with elected officials is a vital leadership skill. In this workshop, participants will learn the nuts and bolts of making a house call to their legislator, best practices to maximize the impact of meetings, and ways to successively build a relationship through multiple contacts. Winn Periyasami is a fellow and board member of PNHP’s NY Metro chapter. Stephanie Kang is the Medicare for All Fellow for Rep. Pramila Jayapal. Eagan Kemp is the health care policy advocate at Public Citizen.
